

MARCH 30

Palestine Land Day

30th March is 'Palestine Land Day', commemorating the 1948 expropriation of swathes of land in the West Bank and Galilee—an area of historic Jewish settlement.

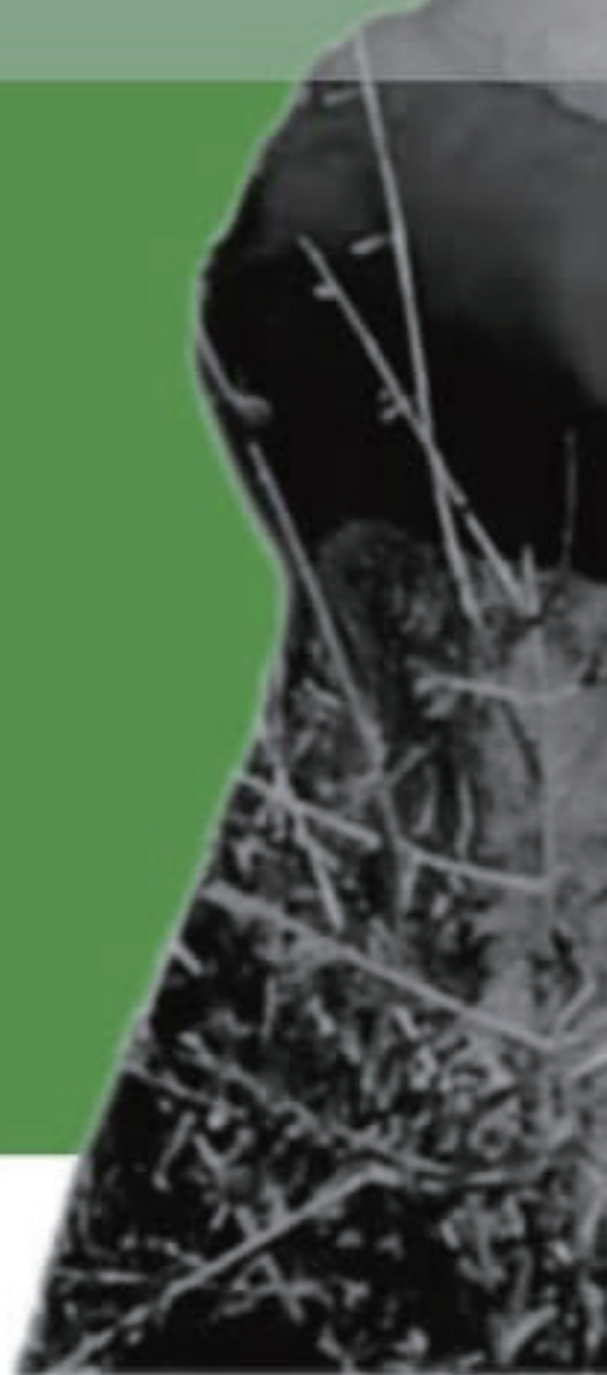

1948-1949: The Nakba

A black and white photograph of a tree trunk, showing its textured bark and a few small leaves. The image is set against a solid green background. The text 'me' and 'ay' are overlaid on the left side of the image.

me
ay and Day'. Israel announced of Palestinian land in the c Palestine now in northern

Israel on 11 March 1976. Many resist this across Palestine opened fire on Palestinian were killed, over 100 were detained.

Massive protests erupted to e, and on 30 March, Israel protesters. Six Palestinians injured, and hundreds were

The land seized by the Israel to build several new Israeli an army training camp. It state then referred to as “J

Israeli government was used in villages (settlements) and it was part of a policy the "Judaisation" of the Galilee.

'Land day' was designed the resistance and sac against Israel's theft Every year on this

ated to commemorate crifices of Palestinians t of Palestinian land.
day. global protests

Every year on this day against Israel's occupa ation are held.

The Great March

On 30 March 2018 the Great campaign of weekly demo right of return for Palestin resistance continued for 2 forces—mostly snipers—Palestinians, 46 of them un

Return

Great Return March began—a demonstrations demanding the return of Palestinian refugees. This form of protest has lasted for over 20 months. Israel security forces have
-killed at least 223
Palestinians
under the age of 18.

Even now, Israel is engaging Palestinians from their homes to UN OCHA, in the northe operation by Israeli forces has the last two years, more than West Bank has been displac violence and access restriction g in ethnic cleansing, driving s and killing them. According ern West Bank, the ongoing s entered its eighth week. Over 2,000 Palestinians across the ed due to heightened settler ns.

49th La

This year, on the 49th anniversary, we will protest against Israeli occupation, resistance and sacrifice. We demand the full liberation of Palestine. Palestinian refugees can return to their homes.

Land Day

On the anniversary of Land Day, we condemn Israel's genocide, honour the resistance of Palestinians, and demand the liberation of Palestine so that Palestinians can return to their homes.

